DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 10-13, 15, 31-32, 34-36, 39-43, 45-47, and 49-69 are allowed.

The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

the allowability recites at least in part: a processor and display assembly housed in a rack-mountable chassis, a pivot assembly slidably engaged with at least one of the rack-mountable chassis and the display assembly or that a storage medium receiving aperture of the processor base device and the display position locates the display surface generally parallel and perpendicular to the storage medium receiving aperture or that a pivot assembly slidably engaged with a first position having an electronic display surface and/or a second position coupled to a rack-mountable chassis or that a processor housed in the chassis and a display assembly secured to the chassis mounted to a rack and a pivot structure slidably engaged with a mounting structure of the display assembly or that a chassis fixedly secured to a support structure or that a display surface that is positionable generally parallel to the front side in the display configuration and generally parallel to at least one of the left and right sides in the retracted configuration or that a display device that is disposed between the top and bottom sides of a chassis when in the display and retracted configuration.
